B.A.No. 1904 of 2015

Dated this the 17th April, 2015

O R D E R

When the matter is taken up for consideration, learned counsel for the petitioner sought permission to withdraw the application stating that all the offences alleged against the petitioner are bailable offences. In the said circumstances, without prejudice to the petitioner's right to move application for regular bail before the trial court, this Bail Application is dismissed.
