B.A.No.2757 of 2015

Dated this the 23rd day of June, 2015

ORDER

Petition filed under Sec.438 Cr.P.C.

2. The petitioner is alleged to have committed the offences under Secs.143, 144, 147, 148, 341,323, 324, 332, 333, 326, 308 and 294(b) read with Sec.149 of Indian Penal Code. The prosecution case is that when police personnel led by the Sub Inspector went to the place of occurrence on getting information that certain people were creating problems under the influence of alcohol, the petitioner and the co-accused armed with weapons like reapers wrongfully restrained the Police personnel, assaulted them and prevented them from discharging their duties.

3. Heard both sides.

4. Learned counsel submits that the petitioner is not involved in the incident and the allegations against him are false.

5. The Police arrested two persons from the place of occurrence. In the First Information Report it is stated that the other persons ran away. But the petitioners name finds a place in the First Information Report. It is not known how his identity was established when the First Information Report was prepared. The prosecution has no case that it was the petitioner who cause fracture to the victim by assaulting him with a reaper.

Having regard to these facts, I am inclined to grant the prayer.

In the result, the bail application is allowed.

- 1)The petitioner shall be released on bail after interrogation on his executing a bond for Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five thousand only) with two solvent sureties each for the like sum if he is arrested by the Police in connection with this case.
- 2) He shall appear before the Investigating Officer for interrogation if he is so required by him in writing.
- 3) He shall not destroy or tamper with evidence.

In case of violation of any of the above conditions, the learned Magistrate is empowered to cancel the bail in accordance with the law.
