B.A.No. 3888 of 2015

Dated this the 7th day of July, 2015

O R D E R

Petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C.

2. Petitioner is alleged to have committed the offences under Sections 143, 147, 148, 307, 333, 342, 341, 379 read with Section 149 IPC and Section 20 of the Kerala Protection of River Banks and Regulation of Removal of Sand Act, 2001. The prosecution case is that Police Officers including the victim noticed river sand being transported in a lorry, without any permit. When the victim and other Police Officers attempted to prevent it, they assaulted him with the handle of a spade, causing him very serious injuries.

3. Heard.

4. Learned counsel submits that the petitioner has been in custody since 26.05.2015 and he may be granted bail. On the other hand, the submission of the Public Prosecutor that the petitioner was actively involved in the commission of the offences and it was he who loaded the lorry with sand and escorted the vehicle.

5. Further it is stated that he informed the other accused of the movements of the Police Officers. The Police Officer is still in hospital. He sustained very serious injuries. If the petitioner is granted bail, there is every likelihood of his influencing or intimidating the witnesses. His bail application cannot be allowed.

In the result, this application is dismissed.
