Dated this the 25th day of August 2015

ORDER

When the matter was taken up today, it was submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner was arrested on 24.6.2015 and the original offence alleged against him was punishable under Section 395 IPC, which was later altered to Section 398 IPC and hence, he is entitled to statutory bail.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that the final report has not been filed even now. In the above circumstance, he is entitled for statutory bail, though the allegation against the accused is very serious.

3. In the above circumstance, rather than relegating the petitioner to the learned Magistrate at this stage, I am inclined to grant default bail at this stage, subject to the following strict conditions :-

- (i) The petitioner shall execute bond for a sum of ₹1,00,000/- (Rupees One Lakh only) with two sureties for the like sum each to the satisfaction of the jurisdictional Magistrate.

- (ii) The petitioner shall surrender his passport, if any at the time of executing the bond and if not, file an affidavit to that effect.
- (iii) The petitioner shall appear before the Investigating Officer on all Tuesdays and Fridays between 9 and 10 a.m. till the final charge is laid.
- (iv) The petitioner shall not leave the jurisdiction of Kunnampulam Police Station till the final charge is laid.
- (v) The petitioner shall appear before the Investigating Officer as and when called for and shall co-operate with the investigation and shall not in any manner interfere in the course of investigation.
