Application filed under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

2. Petitioner is the accused in Crime No.1061 of 2015 of Tirur Police Station registered for the offences punishable under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 20 & 23 of the Kerala Protection of River Banks and Regulation of Removal of Sand Act, 2001.

3. Prosecution case is that on 05.07.2015 the petitioner was found transporting river sand in vehicle No.KL-32-1916, without any proper documents or authority. Petitioner pleaded innocence.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor.

5. The offences alleged against the petitioner have a direct bearing on the ecological balance and economic interest of this Country. Therefore, I am of the view that the petitioner is not entitled to get anticipatory bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The petitioner shall surrender before the Investigating Officer within a period of '15 days' from today and submit himself for interrogation. The Investigating Officer shall produce him before the learned Magistrate having jurisdiction on the date of surrender itself. Thereafter, the petitioner is free to move for bail before the learned Magistrate and in that event, the learned Magistrate may consider the application on merits if possible on the date of surrender itself.
