Dated this the 12th day of November, 2015.

JUDGMENT

Initially, the petitioner has filed the Contempt Case complaining that Annexure A1 judgment has not been complied with. In response to the submissions made by the learned Government Pleader that it has already been complied with, the learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that he has already filed a writ petition seeking implementation of the order passed in compliance with Annexure A1 judgment.

Recording the said submission, this Court closes the contempt case as having not survived for further consideration.
