Con. Case (c) No. 898 OF 2015

DATED THIS THE 20th DAY OF AUGUST, 2015.

J U D G M E N T

The 2nd respondent had filed an affidavit stating that no illegal dumping of the slaughtering waste in the disputed property is being done and also assuring that no such action in violation of the directions contained in the judgment will be pursued. He has also produced a certificate issued by the 1st respondent to the effect that the 'Bio-gas plant' is now kept in a manner not usable. Learned counsel appearing of the petitioner also conceded that no action in violation of Annexure-A judgment is precipitated at present.

In view of the above situation the above contempt of court case is hereby closed.
