ORDER

Petitioners are the accused and defacto complainant in Crime No.1001/14 of the Kasaragod Police Station registered for the offence punishable under Section 498A of the Indian Penal Code.

2. Petitioners have come up with this Crl.M.C. under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for getting Annexure-I complaint in Crime No.1001/14 of the Kasaragod Police Station, quashed.

3. Heard. According to the petitioners, all the matters in dispute between the first petitioner and the second petitioner have been amicably settled and presently the defacto complainant/second petitioner has no complaints against the first petitioner and, therefore, the proceedings against the first petitioner may be quashed.

4. Petitioners 1 and 2 have filed a joint affidavit affirming that all the matters in dispute between them have been amicably settled and, hence, all further proceedings in the matter referred to above can be quashed.

5. When all the matrimonial disputes have been settled between the parties and as the defacto complainant has no complaints against the first petitioner, it is only just and expedient in the interest of justice to quash the proceedings referred to above.

In the result, this Crl.M.C. is allowed and Annexure-I complaint in Crime No.1001/14 of the Kasaragod Police Station, and all further proceedings based on it, are hereby quashed.

B.KEMAL PASHA, JUDGE
