Dated this the 20th February, 2015

ORDER

The petitioner herein has received summons in C.P.1 of 2015 from the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court-I, Adoor. He seeks a direction from this Court to the learned Magistrate to release him on bail. Such a relief cannot be granted under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. He has only received summons from the court and he does not have any apprehension of being arrested. However, he believes that he will be remanded to judicial custody. It is not known why he believes so. In the crime of 2001, the final report came only in 2015. Anyway, I do not think that the learned Magistrate will mechanically remand the petitioner to judicial custody. He will have to appear before the learned Magistrate on summons and make application for bail. However, a direction can be made to consider the application for bail, without any delay.

In the result, this Crl.M.C is closed with direction to the court below that in case the petitioner makes application for bail on appearance in C.P. 1 of 2015, the same shall be judiciously considered and decided, on the date of filing itself.
