Crl.M.C.No.1179 of 2015

Dated this the 25th day of February, 2015

O R D E R

The petitioners herein are the accused in three complaints brought under Section 420 IPC. All these cases are now pending before the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court-I, Chavakkad. They want to surrender before the learned Magistrate and apply for bail. They somehow got information from some source, which is not known, that the learned Magistrate would insist on production of different sets of sureties in the three cases. It is not known from where the petitioners got such information. Any way, they apprehend that they will be remanded to custody in case they could not produce six sureties. I do not think that the learned Magistrate will insist on production of different sets of sureties in the different cases. What the court would look into is not in fact the number of the sureties, but the solvency of the sureties produced by the accused to the extent of the total amount of the bond ordered in the three cases. This Court does not think that any Magistrate in Kerala will maintain such an unjust or impractical approach.

With the above observations, this Crl.M.C. is closed. The petitioners can very well surrender before the learned Magistrate and make application for bail.
