Crl.M.C.No.4219 of 2015

=====

Dated this the 30th day of July, 2015

ORDER

The petitioner is aggrieved by the rejection of his request before the Court below for permission to go abroad. Now the learned counsel submits that, the petitioner would approach the learned Magistrate and make necessary application. It is made clear that, if permission for more than six months is required, such permission also can be granted, if sufficient reason is stated by the petitioner, and the Court is convinced of that reason. Without prejudice to the right of the petitioner to approach the learned Magistrate for necessary permission, this Crl.M.C. is closed.
