ORDER

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

Learned Chief Judicial Magistrate has reported that all the passports are now before the court below. It was only on account of a mistake that the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate had returned the passports for a particular period. The learned Chief Judicial Magistrate has tendered his unconditional apology in the matter by taking responsibility of the mistake committed by the court below. Proceedings against the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate are dropped.

When the passports are now before the court below, any further interference is not required in the matter and, therefore, this Crl.M.C. is disposed of.
