Crl. M.C. No. 7411 of 2015

Dated this the 11th day of December, 2015

ORDER

The petitioner herein is the sole accused in CC No.610/2009 of the Judicial First Class Magistrate Court-II, Nedumangad. He seeks a direction for expeditious trial and disposal of the case. His grievance is that in spite of repeated steps including coercive steps issued from the trial court, the Police has failed to procure the presence of witnesses, and the trial is being delayed.

2. As required by this Court, the learned Magistrate submitted a report dated 03.12.2015. The report shows that, the total pendency there is 8455 cases. CC No.610/2009 already stands scheduled for trial, and coercive steps are pending against the material witnesses. It is reported that the learned Magistrate has given show cause notice to the Police in view of the failure to produce witnesses. However, the learned Magistrate has reported that the case could be tried and disposed of within six months. In such a situation, I feel it not necessary to give a direction for a time bound disposal.

The report by the learned Magistrate that the case could be disposed of within six months is recorded, and the Crl.M.C. is accordingly disposed of.
