C.R.P. No. 587 of 2014

Dated this the 9th day of March, 2015.

ORDER

The dispute in this revision is regarding the amount due in a land acquisition proceedings. The Government has filed a statement so also the claimant in the proceedings.

2. Learned counsel for the respondent, who is the claimant before the court below says that the amount awarded by the court below is correct, the Government Pleader on the other hand contended that it is an one line order which has no basis or foundation and that no reason has been shown in the order.

3. It is not disputed before this Court that both sides have filed statements in respect of the amount due and the court below accepted the statement filed by the claimant. No reasons are discernible from the order of the court below. It is a non-speaking order.

Hence, the impugned order is set aside and the matter is remanded to the court below for fresh disposal in accordance with law.
