Ashok Bhushan, CJ.

Heard learned counsel for the applicant as well as learned counsel appearing for the Bank.

2. This is a petition seeking review of the judgment dated 22.6.2015 in W.P(C).No.14448 of 2015. In the Writ Petition an interim order was passed in favour of the writ petitioner, which was challenged by the Bank in W.A.No.1138 of 2015. The Writ Petition was also called and both the Writ Appeal and the Writ Petition were decided by our judgment dated 22.6.2015. The interim order was set aside and the Writ Appeal was dismissed.

3. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the judgment be reviewed by permitting him to withdraw the Writ Petition. In the judgment we have held that there being a settlement in the Lok Adalath, the petitioner was bound to follow the terms and conditions of the settlement and the notice issued by the Advocate Commissioner for inspecting the scheduled property could not have been challenged in a writ proceedings.

4. We are of the view that there is no ground to review the judgment. The Writ Petition having been dismissed, at this stage we are not persuaded to accept the request of the writ petitioner to permit withdrawal of the Writ Petition. The Review Petition is dismissed.
