O R D E R

The petitioner herein seeks transfer of a criminal case. But the application for transfer does not contain any definite ground for transfer. Of course, cognizance was taken by the trial court under Sections 420 and 494 of the Indian Penal Code. The prosecution under Section 494 of the Indian Penal Code cannot proceed in view of the statutory bar against cognizance. The accused will have to take necessary steps in this regard. Now there is no representation for the petitioner, who has brought this request for transfer. Even otherwise the petition does not contain any legal or satisfactory reason for transfer. Hence this Transfer Petition is dismissed.
