Heard.

2. The review petitioner is the fourth respondent in the writ petition. She had not entered appearance or placed any pleadings on record in the writ petition. She now seeks a review of the judgment raising factual contentions. I find no good ground raised which warrants a review of the judgment.

In the above circumstances, the review petition is dismissed. However, it is clarified that in the event of the writ petitioner being found in possession of puramboke land, she will also be heard before demolition of the compound wall put up by her.
