Petitioners have sought for an inter-district transfer of criminal cases so as to enable him to attend the case properly. According to the petitioner, altogether there are 56 cases against him and he finds it difficult to reach all the courts concerned. The request forwarded by the petitioner in these cases cannot be entertained. These transfer petitions are devoid of merits and are only to be dismissed and I do so. The petitioner can approach the concerned criminal courts for getting exemption. In such case, the courts shall take a lenient view in the matter by granting exemption to the petitioner by considering the difficulties to which the petitioner is put.

In the result, these transfer petitions are dismissed.
