ASHOK BHUSHAN, Ag.CJ & A.M.SHAFFIQUE, J.

W.A. No. 155 of 2015
and
W.A. No. 156 of 2015

Dated this the 23rd day of January, 2015

J U D G M E N T

Ashok Bhushan, Ag.CJ

These two writ appeals have been filed by the petitioners, who is the appellant, where prayer has been made to continue the status-quo granted as per the order of the learned Single Judge dated 8.1.2015 till the disposal of the writ petition.

2. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the matter was taken on 22.1.2015 and now it is posted on 29.1.2015 for consideration. He submits that no orders have been passed extending the status quo. He submits that in view of the order of the District Collector dated 17.1.2015, now the hospital is under the threat of closure.

3. We have perused the order of the Collector. The direction issued by the Collector is, not to admit any further in-patients. There is no direction for closure of the hospital. Therefore the apprehension of the appellant/petitioner is misconceived. However, in view of the fact that the matter has already been posted before the learned Single Judge on 29.1.2015, we see no reason to entertain these appeals.

With the above observation, both the writ appeals are dismissed.
