JUDGMENT

Petitioner was prevented from appearing in the final year examination of B.A. degree course, he was undergoing, under the first respondent. The proceedings were taken obviously in pursuance to an agreement registered under the Kerala Prohibition of Ragging Act, 1998. This Court, by order dated 2.3.2010, directed the first respondent to permit the petitioner to appear for the examination, but made it provisional, subject to final orders to be passed in the writ petition.

1. The petitioner was directed to take out process on the first respondent, which has not been done till date. On 27.7.2011, the petitioner was specifically directed to cure the defect within one week. On 10.8.2011, the counsel for the petitioner asserted that, process was paid on 2.8.2011. The Registry on 11.2.2015 re-iterates that, no steps have been taken. Under such circumstances, the petitioner's contentions in the writ petition, cannot be entertained. It is submitted by the learned standing counsel for the second respondent that, no statutory appeal has been filed.
