Shaffique, J.

This writ petition is filed seeking for police protection against obstruction caused by the 1st respondent and others from carrying out the activities in the shed bearing Nos.MP III 289 A&B and MP III 289 D & E.

It is submitted by the learned Government Pleader that police protection was sought for in the matter since the petitioner was in occupation of the premises. It is submitted that thereafter no untoward incident had been reported and therefore, we close this writ petition with liberty to the petitioner to approach the police if there is any offence committed or there is attempt to commit offence.
