JUDGMENT

The petitioner has sought for a temporary permit in her route which has now been granted for 20 days. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in fact she had made two applications; one for 20 days and one for four months. However, since, now 20 days application has been granted, after the expiry of the same, the petitioner could move the appropriate authority for consideration of the other application or can file a fresh application.

K.VINOD CHANDRAN, JUDGE.
