W.P.(C) No.4631 of 2015

Dated this the 13th day of February, 2015

JUDGMENT

The petitioners have approached this Court with the following prayers:

"(i) to issue a writ of mandamus, order or appropriate direction commanding and compelling the respondent to pass final orders on Ext.P1 Provisional Order considering Ext.P2 objection of the petitioners within a time frame stipulated by this Hon'ble Court;

(ii) to issue a writ, order or direction directing the respondent to consider Ext.P2 in the light of Ext.P4

(iii) to issue such other order or direction as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case."

2. The learned counsel for the petitioners that, in response to Ext.P1 Provisional Order passed by the respondent, the petitioners have already filed Ext.P2 objections. The matter is pending for quite a long and the delay in finalising the proceedings made the petitioners to approach this Court by filing the writ petition.

3. Heard the learned Government Pleader as well.

4. Considering the limited extent of relief sought for, this Court does not find it necessary to adjudicate the issue on merits.

5. After hearing both the sides, the writ petition is disposed of, directing the respondent to consider and pass appropriate orders on Ext.P1 Provisional Order, after considering Ext.P2 objection preferred by the petitioners, after giving an opportunity of hearing to the petitioners and also the other interested parties, if any, as expeditiously as possible, at the earliest, at any rate, within 'two months' from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.

Petitioners shall produce a copy of this judgment, along with a copy of the writ petition, before the respondent, for further steps.

JUDGE
