W.P.(C).No.16032 of 2006-H

Dated this the 06th day of July, 2015

JUDGMENT

The petitioners were before this Court, claiming 'Schedule Tribe' status to the 2nd petitioner, being the caste status of the 1st petitioner, the mother.

2. The petitioners were before this Court only since the 2nd petitioner was denied the Scheduled Tribe status for reason of his father belonging to the 'Pulluva' community on the ground that there is a presumption, of the caste of the progeny, being the caste of the father. In the present case, the 1st petitioner and her husband are said to have separated and the 2nd petitioner is said to have been brought up by the 1st petitioner alone. In any event, the learned counsel for the petitioners submits that, now the 2nd petitioner is issued with a certificate, showing the caste as 'Scheduled Tribe'. In such circumstance, nothing survives in the writ petition and the same is closed as infructuous.
