Dated this the 6th March, 2015

JUDGMENT

Ashok Bhushan, Ag, CJ.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader. No notice is being issued to respondents 1 to 3, in view of the order, which is being passed.

2. This Writ Petition has been filed by the petitioner seeking a direction to the fourth respondent to investigate into Exhibit P1 complaint and direct the fourth respondent to render police protection to the petitioner's life and property. The petitioner is a physically handicapped person. His case is that he was threatened by respondents 1 to 3. He has filed Exhibit P1 complaint dated 13.2.2015.

3. The learned Government Pleader, after obtaining instruction, submitted that there is a civil dispute between the father of the petitioner and the private respondents with regard to which O.S.No.206 of 2012 is pending. It is submitted that Exhibit P1 complaint was enquired and the Police came to a conclusion that no such incident took place.

4. In view of the fact that Exhibit P1 complaint was enquired, we find that no further direction is needed. We, however, observe that in the event any offence is committed or attempted, it is for the petitioner to file appropriate complaint before the Police.

With the above observation, the Writ Petition is closed.
