The petitioner is working as Santhi in Karikkode Sastha Temple. The petitioner approached this Court feeling aggrieved by not giving transfer to three places, where he opted. The petitioner submits that initially he was transferred to the Elamkulam Vishnu Temple, one of the opted temple. However this order was cancelled without notice. The petitioner submits that there are vacancies, in the places in which he opted. But the respondents have not considered him for the above vacancies. Accordingly the petitioner has approached this Court.

2. The learned Standing Counsel for the respondent submits that there are no vacancies in any of the temples, where the petitioner has opted. There are vacancies of Theertapani, Thrikkovil Santhi in Thripunithura temple. If the petitioner exercise option for any one vacancy among the above, it will be considered by the Board.

3. In view of the above facts and circumstances, if the petitioner exercises option within one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment, the petitioner shall be considered for any of the vacancies in Tripunithura temple. If there is no other impediment, the petitioner shall be considered for any of the future vacancies in the temples where the petitioner have opted or based on mutual transfer.

The writ petition is disposed of as above. No costs.
