In the above writ petition, at the time of admission, there was an interim order granted for settlement of the due by payment in three instalments. Since, no contention is raised as to the liability itself, there would be no purpose in keeping the writ petition pending.

2. I have heard Sri. Manu, appearing for the respondent Board also. The writ petition is closed and if there are any dues, it goes without saying that the Board would be entitled to proceed against the petitioners, for recovery, if it is not satisfied within a month from today.

The above writ petition would stand closed.
