In all these writ petitions, the petitioner challenges the notices issued to him under the Income Tax Act, proposing an assessment, when it is the case of the petitioner that, assessments under the Income Tax Act for the years in question, have already been completed.

When the matters were taken up today, it is submitted by the learned Standing counsel for the respondents in all the writ petitions that, the notices served on the petitioner were served by mistake, consequent to a system error, and the respondents have since decided to withdraw the notices issued to the petitioner. The writ petitions are hence closed as infructuous, by recording the submission of the learned Standing counsel for the respondents that it has been decided to withdraw the notices issued to the petitioner, which are impugned in the writ petitions.
