Petitioner has approached this Court seeking police protection inter alia contending that the 2nd respondent, a financier has come to her residence where she is running Ladies Hostel demanding huge amounts. Petitioner is also threatened with loss of life. Though a complaint was given to the police, no action was taken in the matter and hence the petitioner has approached this Court.

2. The learned State Attorney, on instructions, would submit that the petitioner owes large amounts to various persons and several cases under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act are pending against her. It is submitted that on receipt of the complaint, the parties were summoned and it was found that there is money transaction between the petitioner as well as the 2nd respondent. However, the 2nd respondent has undertaken that no criminal activity shall be committed in the matter relating to money transaction.

Having regard to the aforesaid submission, we do not think that any direction is required to be passed in this writ petition. However, we observe that if any offence is committed or there is attempt to commit offence, on the complaint of the petitioner, police shall enquire into the matter and do the needful, in accordance with law.

With the above observation, this writ petition is disposed of.
