The petitioner approached this Court aggrieved by the steps taken by the respondents, under the Kerala Revenue Recovery Act, for proceeding against the property of the petitioner for recovery of the dues of the petitioner's brother. When the matter came up today for orders, it was submitted by the learned Government Pleader, on instructions, that the respondents are not taking any steps under the Revenue Recovery Act against the properties of the petitioner. This submission of the learned Government Pleader is recorded and the writ petition is closed.
