DAMA SESHADRI NAIDU, J.

W.P. (C) No. 19711 of 2006 (V)

Dated this the 13th day of August, 2015.

JUDGMENT

The learned counsel for the petitioners has represented that petitioners 1 and 2 died subsequent to the filing of the writ petition. Insofar as the third petitioner is concerned, the learned counsel has submitted that he has so far not got any instructions from the third petitioner, despite his best efforts. In the facts and circumstances, the learned counsel for the petitioners reports that he is not in a position to even trace out the correct address of the third petitioner to communicate to him concerning the progress of the case.

The writ petition was filed in 2006. To this day, the learned counsel for the petitioners could not get any instructions, at least from the third petitioner, who alone is alive. This Court, having no other alternative, dismisses the writ petition for non-prosecution.
