W.P.(C).No.9779 of 2015-V

Dated this the 09th day of April, 2015

JUDGMENT

The petitioner is aggrieved with the timings to the 2nd respondent not being settled in a validly convened timing conference.

2. The 2nd respondent was granted with a regular permit in August, 2014 and on the delay of issuance of the permit, the 2nd respondent was before this Court. This Court directed settlement of the timings within a time frame and also directed issuance of the permit on the proposed set of timings, if the final settlement is not made within that time. The petitioners, rival operators of the 2nd respondent, contend that the 2nd respondent has been operating on the proposed set of timings and the Secretary, R.T.A. has not thought it fit to convene a timing conference despite the issuance being subject to final settlement. Any how, it is submitted that now a timing conference is scheduled on 22.05.2015. In such circumstance, definitely the timings shall be settled on 22.05.2015 itself.

The writ petition is disposed of as above.
