W.P(C). No. 11319 of 2015

Dated this the 7th day of August, 2015

J U D G M E N T

The petitioner has approached this Court threatened with revenue recovery proceedings initiated to recover the maintenance arrears based on the order passed by the Family Court against the son of the petitioner.

2. The learned Government Pleader also affirmed that due is from the son of the petitioner. If that be so, it is made clear that, no distrained order shall be made against the movable or immovable properties belonging to the petitioner.

This writ petition is disposed of.
