This writ petition has been filed seeking police protection alleging that respondents 3 and 4 were threatening the petitioner. According to the petitioner, the issue involved is with reference to the right claimed in regard to a property.

2. The learned Government Pleader, on instructions, would submit that police have conducted necessary enquiry into the matter and directed the parties to keep peace.

Hence we close this writ petition with liberty to the petitioner to approach the police, if any further cause of action arises.
