The petitioner seeks condonation of the attendance shortage so as to enable the petitioner to participate in the examination.

2. However, the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondent University submits on instruction that the petitioner's shortage of attendance is beyond the condonable limit. The learned Standing Counsel also refers to the counter affidavit, filed today and served on the petitioner's counsel, showing that the petitioner's attendance shortage is beyond the condonable limit.

In such circumstance, nothing survives in the writ petition and the same is dismissed.
