The petitioner is challenging Ext.P6 demand made by the 1st respondent and the sale notice issued at Ext.P7. The sale itself was concluded in favour of the additional 4th respondent. The petitioner does not challenge the sale as such in the above writ petition. The petitioner's claim is that the petitioner is ready to pay the amounts remaining defaulted as per the loan account on a One Time Settlement Scheme basis. However, that no longer survives since the sale itself has been effected, the writ petition would stand dismissed.
