The petitioner approached this Court with the above writ petition at the time of recovery initiated for amounts determined and remaining due under Section 14B of the Employees' Provident Funds and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952 (for brevity, 'EPF & MP Act'). The learned Standing Counsel submits that an appeal was filed and the same was dismissed and there is no challenge against the appellate order.

In such circumstance, nothing survives in the writ petition and the writ petition would stand dismissed.
