JUDGMENT

The 1st petitioner is the beneficiary of a will executed by one Lakshmikutty Amma. Second petitioner is the life interest holder of the property. It appears that the 1st petitioner had alienated certain portion of the property. Tahasildar, noting that alienation has taken place without following the stipulation in the will, refused to accept land tax for the petitioner. Tahasildar has communicated the same to the District Law Officer. Aggrieved by the above decision, the petitioner has approached this Court.

2. The 2nd petitioner is the life interest holder. He has no objection in alienation of the property. In that view of the matter, if the life interest holder has no objection, the respondents are directed to accept land tax for the petitioner.

Needful shall be done to comply with the order without any delay.

The Writ Petition is disposed of.
