JUDGMENT

Petitioner, who was a student of B.A.(Eng.) literature in the 6th respondent college, affiliated to the first respondent, challenges the action of the college, in issuing transfer certificate to the petitioner. Petitioner challenged the action of the college before the Board for Adjudication of Students' Grievances of the University, which resulted in Ext.P7 order. Pursuant to the same, the student is said to have filed an unconditional apology, before the Principal, the sixth respondent herein, which was also declined by Ext.P9. Petitioner's claim was for re-admission to the course, which, at this point of time, does not survive. None appears for the petitioner. Writ petition is dismissed as infructuous.

K. Vinod Chandran, Judge.
