This writ petition is filed seeking police protection in the matter of an election being held on 26/05/2015. Petitioner is one of the candidate. According to her, rival faction will create a situation where there will be violence during the election process.

2. The learned Government Pleader, on instructions, would submit that appropriate police machinery will be available to ensure free and fair election.

We take on record the above submission. This writ petition is closed.
