W.P.(C) No.15319 of 2015

Dated this the 25th day of May, 2015

J U D G M E N T

The petitioner has approached this Court challenging the detention of his vehicle with goods as per Ext.P3 notice. As per Ext.P3 notice, the petitioner has been directed to furnish security deposit of ₹34,720/-.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for the respondents.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court finds that there is no need for detaining the vehicle. The same shall, therefore, be released to the petitioner on execution of a simple bond without sureties.

This writ petition is disposed of as above.
