The petitioner, a registered dealer, has approached this Court challenging detention of his goods as per Ext.P3 notice. As per Ext.P3 notice, the petitioner has been directed to furnish security deposit of ₹14,890/-.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for the respondents.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court finds that there is no need for detaining the goods. The same shall, therefore, be released to the petitioner on execution of a simple bond without sureties.

This writ petition is disposed of as above.
