JUDGMENT

The petitioner is aggrieved with the dispossession as a consequence Ext.P6, while an appeal is stated to have been filed from Ext.P6, produced at Ext.P5. The respondents 5 to 7 are also said to be parties in the appeal. The petitioner is stated to have made a prayer for stay in the appeal.

In such circumstances, the first respondent shall hear the petitioner on the interim prayer for stay, after issuing notice to the respondents within a period of two months from today. The dispossession of the petitioner shall be stayed till the interim prayer is considered and thereafter shall be governed by that order.

The writ petition is disposed of.
