The petitioners are aggrieved with the fact that Ext.P2 has not been considered by the Village Officer. Ext.P3 is, in fact, a communication which is pursuant to an application before the Land Tribunal for a report from the Village Officer.

2. The learned Government Pleader, on instructions, submits that the petitioners had, by hand, obtained delivery of Ext.P3 from the Land Tribunal and produced it before the 2nd respondent, but, however, had taken it back on the ground that some case is pending. As of now Ext.P3 is not seen in the records of the 2nd respondent, is the specific submission.

3. In such circumstance, if the petitioners produce Ext.P3 communication, then the Village Officer would consider the same.

The Writ Petition is disposed of.
