Petitioner has approached this Court seeking police protection inter alia contending that he has threat from the 4th respondent, who was his wife. It is stated that petitioner is presently residing at Qatar. Petitioner alleges that the 4th respondent had some mental infirmity and she used to manhandle the petitioner. Further, it is stated that petitioner intends to come to India for a marriage function on 2/8/2015 and 8/8/2015. Apprehending that there might be some law and order situation at the time when the petitioner attends the said function, this writ petition is filed seeking appropriate police protection.

2. It is apparent from the pleadings in the case that the issue involved between the parties is a family dispute. Police can interfere only if any offence is committed or there is attempt to commit offence. As matters stand now, no such incident has occurred nor any such complaint has been raised by the petitioner. Under such circumstances, we only observe that petitioner shall submit a complaint to the 3rd respondent if he apprehends any threat and, on receipt of the said complaint, the 3rd respondent shall look into the matter and do the needful.

With the above observation, this writ petition is disposed of.
