The petitioners are purportedly aggrieved with the non-consideration of Exts.P5 and P6 review petition filed before the Education Minister. The petitioners only pray for consideration of the said petitions. However, the petitions are filed before the Education Minister and not before any of the respondents. In such circumstance, no direction can be issued. Further, it is to be noticed that the Educational authority has already rejected the prayer by Ext.P7. In such circumstance, nothing survives in the writ petition.

The writ petition would stand dismissed.
