According to the petitioner, he had occasion to execute a power of attorney in favour of his mother in respect of a property, as he was abroad. The mother was allegedly cheated and defrauded by another person, who is none other than the sister-in-law of the petitioner. So far, it seems that, the petitioner has not preferred any valid complaint with regard to the alleged fraud and cheating allegedly exercised on his mother and on him. With liberty to the petitioner to file a proper complaint before the concerned Station House Officer in the matter, this Writ Petition is closed.
