Shaffique, J.

The petitioner has approached this Court alleging harassment by police. It is stated that the petitioner's brother was married with the 4th respondent and there is matrimonial dispute. However, on account of such dispute, the police, at the instance of the 4th respondent, is unnecessarily coming to the petitioner's residential premises and interfering in the dispute between the 4th respondent and the petitioner's brother.

2. Learned Government Pleader on instructions would submit that the petitioner's brother is involved in two crimes and Non-Bailable Warrant had been issued against him. The police, on enquiry, found that he was available in the residence of the petitioner, came there and arrested him. He was later enlarged on bail. Other than going to the residence of the petitioner for the purpose of arresting her brother, no other action had been taken by the police.

3. Having regard to the aforesaid factual situation, we are of the view that since the police had gone to the residence of the petitioner only for arresting her brother, who was involved in two crimes, it does not amount to any harassment by police.

Hence, taking on record the submission made by the learned Government Pleader, this writ petition is closed.
