W.P.(C) No.38720 of 2015

Dated this the 23rd day of December, 2015

JUDGMENT

The petitioner submits that the Women Commission has no power to entertain Ext.P1 complaint.

2. This Court is of the view that if the petitioner questions the jurisdiction of the Women Commission, certainly, the petitioner is free to raise such objection before the Women Commission. Therefore, with liberty to raise such objection before the Women Commission, the writ petition is disposed of.

2. For raising such objection before the Women Commission, the petitioner is free to appear through a counsel. If the Women Commission is of the view, the personal appearance of the petitioner is required, certainly, the petitioner has to appear before the Commission. If possible, the Commission shall permit the petitioner to appear before them in any of the sitting scheduled at Thiruvananthapuram.
