Father of the alleged detenue Miss.Dhimi Mol.P.D is the petitioner. Allegation is that she is being detained by the 7th respondent at some unknown place. It is stated that the 7th respondent is a married person, having one child in his legal wedlock. The 8th respondent is the mother of the 7th respondent. When the case came up for admission on 14.07.2015, we ordered notice to respondents 7 and 8 and directed production of the alleged detenue Miss.Dhimi Mol P.D.

2. Today when the case is taken up, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the alleged detenue was traced out and she was released from the custody of the 7th respondent, and she had joined her parental house along with the petitioner.

3. Under such circumstances, it is submitted that, no further orders are required in this writ petition. It is also submitted that a case registered in connection with missing of the alleged detainee, against the 7th respondent is being investigated.
